Primates settle into their new home at Mysuru Zoo

New guests: Four orangutans from Singapore and two gorillas from Germany

Two gorillas in playful mood at Mysuru Zoo today.

Mysuru, Oct. 2 (MTY&BCT)- Coinciding with 412th Dasara, the Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens (Mysuru Zoo) has achieved the rare distinction of being the only Zoo in India to possess gorillas and orangutans along with a white rhino and African cheetahs.

While the white rhino and cheetahs were the acquisitions in the past, gorillas and orangutans have come recently to the Zoo and will be open for public display soon. The Zoo struck a major international animal exchange deal where two pairs of orangutans have come from Singapore. Likewise, two male gorillas have come from Germany.

The gorillas are named Thabo (14) and Demba (8) and are males and in the next step, Germany will dispatch a family group to be housed in the city Zoo. The orangutan pairs are named Afa (male, 5 years) and Minnie (7 years female) and Merlin (17 years male) and Atina (13 years female). All the primates are under quarantine and medical care now, Zoo Executive Director Ajit M. Kulkarni told SOM this morning.

Male giraffes in exchange

It has been a long-cherished wish of the Zoo management to house orangutans and gorillas. An orangutan housed at Nandankanan Zoo in Odisha died last year. In return for the orangutans, the Zoo has given two male giraffes to the Singapore Zoo.

SWR Mysuru Division
celebrates Gandhi Jayanthi

Mysuru, Oct. 2- Rahul Agarwal, Divisional Railway Manager, South Western Railway (SWR), Mysuru Division, today paid homage to Mahatma Gandhi on his 152nd birth anniversary in a simple function at Gandhi Vana near Railway Sports Grounds here.

Speaking on the occasion, Agarwal said that in recent years, the Ministry of Railways has been pushing to give a boost to the Government's cleanliness mission Swachh Bharat Abhiyan in many ways. From introducing innovative sanitation in trains to green train corridors and making the tracks zero discharge free zone, the Railways were leaving no stones unturned when it came to Swachhta.

Keeping the mission of Swachh Rail-Swachh Bharat in mind, SWR Mysuru Division observed a special cleanliness fortnight drive Swachhta Pakhwada across its entire network from Sept.16 to Oct.2. Each day of the Pakhwada was given a special swachh theme such as clean food, clean water, clean residential colonies, clean stations, clean toilets, clean workplace and cleanliness dialogue with the public. The start of the drive was with the theme of Swachh Awareness, in which Railway staff pledged to keep these clean and swachh, and different activities were held across the Division to raise awareness about cleanliness, said the DRM.

Later in the day, the DRM administered the Cleanliness Pledge to Officers and staff at Mysuru Railway Station. The housekeeping staff at the Station were felicitated for their dedicated work and cloth bags were distributed to rail passengers to reduce single-use plastics.

Prizes were given away to the winners of online essay competition on Swachh Bharat.

A. Devasahayam, Budatti Srinivasalu, Additional Divisional Railway Manager I & II, Senior Officers and staff participated in Shramdan at Mysuru Railway Station, according to a press release from Dr. Manjunath Kanamadi, Senior Divisional Commercial Manager and PRO.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Has the Congress under interim President Sonia Gandhi and de facto President Rahul Gandhi decided to give Narendra Modi his third Prime Ministerial term on a platter? Has it concluded that Modi cannot be defeated in 2024, and hence, there is no urgency in setting its own crisis-ridden house in order? All this is happening because of a stark leadership vacuum in the Congress at the very top. Nearly two and a half years after its second consecutive debacle in Parliamentary elections, the party still remains unable to elect a full-time President. It does not have a properly-constituted Congress Working Committee for institutionalised deliberations and decision-making. The Congress is suffering from an appalling level of arbitrariness in its top-level functioning, which can only produce one debilitating crisis after another. The Congress has to do many things for its revival. But right now, Rahul Gandhi has to take one urgent decision. He must end the dangerous drift in the party. For this, he has to either get elected as Congress President — that is, exercise leadership with accountability — or he has to quickly make way for a non-Gandhi to take the reins of the party. — Sudheendra Kulkarni in NDTV.com

Mr. Methane: The man who is paid to fart

London: Mr. Methane is a world-renowned entertainer who, as the name suggests, has a very special talent when it comes to passing wind.

Of all superpowers one could have, farting at will probably sits near the bottom of everyone's list, and yet one of the few people known to be able to control their flatulence has managed to build a career around this ability. Paul Oldfield, aka 'Mr. Methane', discovered his unusual talent for farting in his teenage years and eventually managed to use it as a way to make living, traveling the world and showcasing his somewhat repulsive ability to the world. The Macclesfield-born Englishman currently holds the record for most farts released in one minute, but is also known for performing popular songs by farting and various other revolting tricks for which is is paid.

Beware, this pointy fish can literally stab people

New York: You couldn't tell by looking at its slender, rather frail frame, but the needlefish is one of the world's most dangerous fish to humans, with multiple cases of injuries and even fatalities reported throughout the years.

A member of the family Belonidae, the needlefish is a piscivorous species whose most distinctive feature is the long, narrow beak filled full of sharp, saw-like teeth. But it's not the teeth that one should worry – they're only used to catch smaller fish – but the combination of an extremely pointy beak and incredible speed. Needlefish swim close to the surface of the water and like to jump over obstacles like shallow boats rather than go around them. The problem is that they jump at speeds of up to 60km/h (37mph) and since their obstacles sometimes happen to be humans out at sea, they literally impale them with their long beak, causing serious, sometimes fatal injuries.

Flex board menace

Sir,

I would like to bring to the notice of the MCC authorities about the menace caused by flex boards installed on road sides and hung from the lamp posts along the road dividers.

This causes problems to motorists. Due to the size of the boards, the riders are not able to see the vehicles approaching from the opposite side thus resulting in accidents.

Also, if the boards are not fixed properly there are chances of them falling on the riders causing fatalities.

I am raising this issue now because flex boards have been mushrooming almost on every road especially during this festive season with Dasara and Deepavali around the corner.

I request the MCC authorities to wake up and look into this menace.

OTOSCLEROSIS
Otosclerosis is a disease that is special to humans. There is a small chain of bones in the ear that is responsible for the transmission of sound to the inner ear for processing. The smallest bone is called stapes and works like a piston. Sometimes, the area around the footplate of stapes gets fixed resulting in a type of deafness called 'conductive deafness'. This condition causes a lot of social problems and depression also in some patients. The treatment of this can be either with hearing aids or by Surgery. Surgery is very simple and usually done under local anaesthesia. It has an excellent success rate in curing deafness in these patients. In those patients who do not want Surgery or if the nerve itself is weak, we can offer hearing aids. People, especially ladies, who develop progressive loss of hearing which increases during pregnancy should get evaluated for this condition and get treated. Awareness of this disease will prevent many years of suffering in silence

440 GW of renewable energy by 2030: Khuba

Union Minister launches initiative of installing 5,000 roof-top solar power units; promotes e-vehicles

Mysuru, Oct. 2 (RKB&BCT)- Union Minister of State for Chemicals and Fertilisers and New and Renewable Energy Bhagwanth Khuba on Friday said that the Narendra Modi Government had an intention of producing 440 giga watt (GW) power through renewable energy sources by 2030.

He was speaking after launching 'Soorya Patha' as part of 'Modi Yug Utsav', an initiative of harnessing solar energy in Krishnaraja Constituency where more than 5,000 households have expressed keen interest in installing roof-top solar power generation systems. The event was held at a park near Ramalingeshwara Temple at Vidyaranyapuram yesterday.

By 2022, out of 175 GW power, 150 will be from renewable energy sources and the Department of Renewable Energy has chalked out plans to achieve the target of 440 GW power by 2030, he said.

He added that it is a matter of immense pride for the Indian power sector to have achieved the coveted milestone of 100+ giga watt of installed renewable energy capacity. He urged the people to minimise their dependency on regular electricity and also petrol and go for renewable energy that is economical and would last for several decades.

He further highlighted the Government's effort to promote solar manufacturing and mentioned the Government's push for new technologies — solar PV pumps, storage etc. India's big plans for green hydrogen and its export were also outlined by the Minister.

Minister for Energy and Kannada and Culture V. Sunil Kumar was present during the launch of the initiative. Both the Ministers complimented K.R. MLA Ramdas for this unique project.

Once the rooftop solar units are installed at over 5,000 households, they will supply surplus power generated to the Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) and an MoU will be entered into with the CESC for supplying power for the next 25 years, Ramdas said.

The solar power systems would be installed with 20 to 40 percent subsidy from the Government with 60 percent contribution from the beneficiaries, he added.

An initiative of promoting e-vehicles too was launched on the occasion where people of the Constituency will get support if they wish to go for green vehicles. Charging facilities will be made available in the Constituency, he said.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, CESC Managing Director Jayavibhavaswamy, Corporators M.V. Ramprasad and Shanthamma Vadivelu and others were present at the event.

Cent percent vaccination achieved in K.R. Constituency, says Health Minister

Mysuru, Oct.2 (RKB&DM)- Declaring that K.R. Assembly Constituency in Mysuru city is the first in the State to achieve cent percent target in COVID vaccination, Health Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar said that Constituency MLA S.A. Ramdas must be credited for making relentless efforts to achieve the target.

He was speaking to presspersons after taking part in 'Modi Yug Utsav' programme organised as part of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 71st birthday celebration, at Vidyaranyapuram Park here on Thursday.

Pointing out that 2,40,000 people of K.R. Constituency have received jabs in a record period, Dr. Sudhakar reiterated that it was because of the MLA's efforts. Maintaining that Karnataka has achieved 80 percent first dose vaccination, with 5.6 crore population receiving jabs, he said that it has been planned to vaccinate the entire population of the State with two doses by the end of the year.

Expressing disappointment that people in some tribal belts were not coming forward for getting vaccinated, Dr. Sudhakar regretted that Opposition parties have continued to play vaccination politics despite the State being in the forefront of vaccination.

Health Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar launching various programmes organised as part of 'Modi Yug Utsav' at Vidyaranyapuram here on Thursday as Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji, MLA S.A. Ramdas, Corporator M.V. Ramprasad and others look on.

Continuing, the Health Minister said that the third stage of clinical trial for vaccinating children is underway and added that children in the age group of 12 to 17 years will be vaccinated as per guidelines, once the Government gives sanction.

He said that the service of all health staff who were appointed on temporary basis when the pandemic broke out last year will be extended by three more months, in the wake of reports of possible third wave of attack.

Replying to a question on vacant posts in the Health Department, Dr. Sudhakar said that more than 4,000 doctors and other medical staff have been newly recruited and likewise, the appointment of paramedical staff too will take place. The Government plans to appoint hundreds of nurses in a month through KPSC, he added.

The Minister also launched the Integrated Health Scheme implementation drive, Ayushman Health Card and Wheel Chair distribution to beneficiaries and released a poster on 'Music is a divine cure for all ailments' (Sangeetha Sarva Rogakkoo Divya Aushadha), dedicated to Music Icon Tansen, on the occasion.

MLA Ramdas, in his address, said that 300 music loving children of his Constituency will be selected from 100 schools and trained in music by the Education Department.

Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram's Junior Pontiff Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji graced the occasion. Corporator M.V. Ramprasad and others were present.

Music Therapy in Mysuru

Taking part in the launch of the Music Therapy Centre at Jayanagar's Community Health Centre, Minister Dr. Sudhakar said that the first Music Therapy form of treatment in the State is being started in Mysuru as a pilot project. This form of therapy will be extended to other parts of State after coming to know of its success here, he added.

KSOU to sign MoU with New York University for skill training

Mysuru, Oct. 2- In what is perhaps the first such initiative in the State, city based KSOU (Karnataka State Open University) will sign an MoU (Memorandum of Understanding) with USA based New York University (NYU) to offer training in skill development.

Announcing this after inaugurating a meeting of Co-ordinators of KSOU Learners Support Centres at Cauvery Auditorium in Mukthagangothri campus here on Sept. 29, KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. S. Vidyashankar said that KSOU will offer skill development courses to students under 'Make in India' initiative at a minimal cost of Rs.2,000. Maintaining that KSOU will build a Centre of Excellence in the University campus, he said that the University plans to organise skill development programmes across the State in the coming days.

Pointing out the admission process is going on in online mode, he said that there are plans to provide tabs to MBA students and underlined the role of Learners Support Centres in providing help to Degree students.

Referring to National Education Policy (NEP), he said that the NEP-2020 was very much supportive of overall academic growth of students and the University will start implementing it by January next year. Observing that Karnataka is among the first States to implement NEP, Prof. Vidyashankar reiterated that KSOU had started preparations in right earnest for implementation of NEP.

Registrar Prof. R. Rajanna, who presided, said that many who got degrees from KSOU had qualified in the Civil Services exam.

University Finance Officer Dr. Khader Pasha, Dean (Studies) Dr. Shanmuka, Dean (Academic) Dr. Ashok Kamble and others were present.

Krishna is Vokkaliga, but he's a Kannadiga first

Two days ago, Karnataka Government announced that former Chief Minister S.M. Krishna would inaugurate this year's Dasara festival. Immediately, but not surprisingly, it was seen as a political decision.

People in political circles said that Krishna was chosen because he was from the Vokkaliga community, implying that the BJP chose him to appease this particular community which is dominant in South Karnataka with the hope of winning their votes as they are traditionally NON-BJP voters.

Such deductions are only natural to be made considering elections are coming soon and Vokkaliga votes matter.

More so, because the party that garners most of this community's votes, the JD(S) doesn't have a good track record when it comes to keeping its promise with its coalition partners. Hence, both BJP and Congress want the Vokkaliga votes so they don't have to deal with JD(S) later.

But inviting Krishna will not get that job done for the BJP because...

If there has been a Chief Minister in recent memory who went beyond his caste or community in Karnataka, it is S.M. Krishna.

Unlike other politicians, Krishna was never "obsessed" with his community or any one particular community. This is the reason why Krishna was never very popular within his own Vokkaliga community.

It can be said S.M Krishna's disinterest in "community appeasement politics," especially his own Vokkaliga community, allowed other Vokkaliga politicians to claim and become exclusive Vokkaliga leaders and representatives of Vokkaliga interest.

Of course, Krishna also had another drawback when it came to his mass appeal — he was too urbane, too "English" to connect with rural voters. He was mocked as "Oxford Krishna" for his English ways. Most famously his sartorial choice of suits and his love for the game of tennis.

That said, he was, and still is, more approachable than any of the "Sons of the Soil" politicians. Also, this attitude of Krishna worked well for Karnataka at a time when global companies wanted to sit across the table to do business.

In 2016, Krishna's blue-eyed boy D.K. Shivakumar, speaking at an event in Mysuru, mentioned how Krishna was very particular about building infrastructure to attract business and would often say he wanted to make Bengaluru such that the "world leaders should first come to Bengaluru and then go to Delhi."

To a certain extent that vision did come true because during Krishna's time some of the world's most celebrated business leaders and politicians visited Bengaluru — from China's Premier Zhu Rongji to Britain's Prime Minister Tony Blair; from General Electric Chairman Jack Welch to Intel CEO Craig Barett; from media mogul Rupert Murdoch to the Prime Minister of Japan, Yoshiro Mori, a first visit by a Japanese

Prime Minister to India in 10 years!

They all came, saw and invested in Karnataka, thanks to a CM who sold Karnataka well to investors.

If not for Krishna, the then aggressive CM of our neighbouring State Andhra Pradesh, Chandrababu Naidu, would have hijacked many IT companies to his State, like KCR and Jagan of Telangana and Andhra are doing now.

Krishna, unlike other CMs, worked for everyone in Karnataka. He may have been perceived as an urban leader and industry-focussed but it was during his time that Jala Samvardhane Yojane, a programme to revive and restore deteriorated tanks in rural areas, was launched successfully. It was Krishna, who for the first time set up an Emergency Revolving Fund to procure crops in case of a price crash.

Since we're speaking about "community appeasement" here is another example of Krishna's nonchalant attitude to it.

For 12 years now there has been a project to build a Vivekananda Memorial & Cultural Youth Centre in Mysuru but it has not come to fruition despite a Court order. A similar situation arose back when Krishna was the CM.

In 2000, the Belagavi branch of Ramakrishna Ashram requested the State Government to grant land in Belagavi to build a memorial at a house Swami Vivekananda had stayed in during his visit to the city in 1892. The then Chief Secretary had turned down the request as that land belonged to the Government Guest House. When Krishna heard of the request he issued an order transferring the land to the Ashram. The memorial was completed a year later in 2001.

In Mysuru, even after 12 years, even after a Court order, our Government is unwilling to do so. Both Congress and BJP have failed to uphold the Court order and are fearlessly in Contempt of Court for the sake of votes.

While speaking of Krishna's contribution to Karnataka, one has to mention that it was he who, after noticing the financial catastrophe Karnataka was heading towards, introduced the Karnataka Fiscal Responsibility Act 2002.

This Act made our State Government responsible for financial stability and sustainability, by setting and achieving annual and long-term targets for revenues and reduction of fiscal deficit.

This law imposed limits on borrowings and demanded the State Government "to take appropriate measures to eliminate revenue deficit and contain the fiscal deficit to 3 percent of Gross State Domestic Produce (GSDP)."

Unfortunately, during Siddharamaiah's tenure, he broke this law and took a huge loan, nearly Rs. 39,000 crore! But it was nothing compared to BJP which amended the Act to borrow more. And what was the borrowing? Rs. 90,000 crore! They justified it saying it was needed to manage the financial crisis created by loss of revenues and lack of GST during COVID.

While Krishna brought structure to finance, he also wanted to plug revenue leaks and the biggest one then was liquor sales. So he created the 'Karnataka State Beverages Corporation Ltd.'

This Corporation began plugging leaks in excise revenue by managing distribution and ending the sale of 'seconds' liquor. This not only brought in more money for the State exchequer but also delivered the much-needed death blow to the then powerful liquor lobby.

Krishna had many firsts — he formed the Bangalore Agenda Task Force to manage the city; he demarcated areas in North and South Karnataka to move industries so Bengaluru would not get clogged; he gave life to the land records digitalisation project — BHOOMI — that was lying inactive for 13 years! Today, the Urban Property Ownership Records (UPOR) is an extension of this project.

"Sthree Shakthi," the women's self-help groups and the game-changing mid-day meal scheme, which is now a national one, were born during his time. So also the Metro.

So a man who has done so much for Karnataka is not just a Vokkaliga leader, he is beyond it. We are sure our new CM is not so ignorant as to reduce S.M. Krishna to a mere Vokkaliga mascot. We are sure Krishna was invited in appreciation for his services to Karnataka and its people.

Also while people want to say that BJP chose him for his Vokkaliga credentials we are sure Krishna is not a "vote-getting" Vokkaliga. He never was.

S.M. Krishna may be mocked as "Oxford Krishna" for his "English ways," but like the English, he did much more for the people of Karnataka than leaders who claim to be sons of the soil.

So it's only appropriate that a cultured politician inaugurates the biggest cultural event in a cultural city like Mysuru.

Primates settle into their new home

The last time the Zoo displayed orangutans was in the 70s and the Zoo authorities' best and relentless efforts since then to get an orangutan pair did not materialise. The Zoo has constructed enclosures for orangutans similar to the natural enclosures constructed for African cheetahs. "Germany gave the gorillas free of cost and soon they will hand over a family group of gorillas," Ajit Kulkarni said.

"We had a gorilla named Polo and it died in 2014 and orangutans were under our possession 50 years ago. There have been continuous efforts to procure the primates and now it has been materialised," he added.

Primate enclosures

On the enclosures for the primates, he said that the Zoo has been reworking on its enclosures following suggestions by experts from across the globe.

"These enclosures are natural and have been designed as per international standards and we have focussed on the comfort, safety and hygiene of the primates," he added.

Infosys Foundation Chairperson Sudha Murty has sponsored the upgraded enclosures.

One more Ambaari to cater to rush

On Sept, 26, 92 tourists travelled in 6 trips and on Sept. 28, 18 people travelled in 1 trip. Yesterday, 10 people travelled in 1 trip and today till noon, 60 tourists had gone for city rounds by noon.

Each passenger will be charged Rs. 250 for a round trip of the city covering 35 tourist-interest places. According to KSTDC officials, on weekends there is a huge leap in the numbers and there is more demand for afternoon and evening trips.

"A typical trip takes two hours and now we are facing problems in the evening trips as the traffic density is too high on many roads in the Central Business District. As such, it takes more than three hours to cover one route," an official said. The evening trip from 6 pm to 8 pm and from 8 pm to 10 pm are in great demand and the KSTDC is planning to cut short certain destinations to avoid the bus getting caught in traffic snarls. "This is the only alternative for us. Also, all the tourists ask for roof-top seats with not many takers for the other seats on the main body of the bus. This is unfortunate and we request the people not to insist or argue over roof-top seats," he added.

Gandhiji remembered

Somashekar stressed on the need for following Mahatma Gandhi's Shanti Mantra as it is vital for maintaining peace and harmony in the society.

Mysuru Ramakrishna Ashram's Vijayananda Swamiji, Father Stanley Almeida, Sir Khazi Mohammad Usman Shariff, Jain community leader Suresh Kumar Jain and others rendered prayers of their respective religions.

Singer Ravishankar and team rendered Mahatma Gandhi's bhajans, which earned a huge applause from the gathering.

Freedom Run

In another event, the District Minister flagged off Freedom Run held as part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and Fit India Freedom Run-2.0 at Chamundi Vihar Stadium in Nazarbad.

The Run was jointly organised by the Union Ministry of Youth Services and Sports, Nehru Yuva Kendra, Mysuru, District Administration, Zilla Panchayat, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports (DYES), University of Mysore (UoM) NSS Unit and several sports organisations.

More than 300 people from all ages and from all walks of life took part in the Run, which passed through the main thoroughfares in the heart of the city.

MP Pratap Simha, MLAs L. Nagendra and Tanveer Sait, DYES Assistant Director K. Suresh and UoM NSS Officer Dr. M.B. Suresh were present.

Events to mark Gandhi Jayanthi and Lal Bahadur Shastri's birth anniversary were also held at Gandhi Bhavan, KSOU, Music University in Lakshmipuram and Congress Bhavan near the City Railway Station.

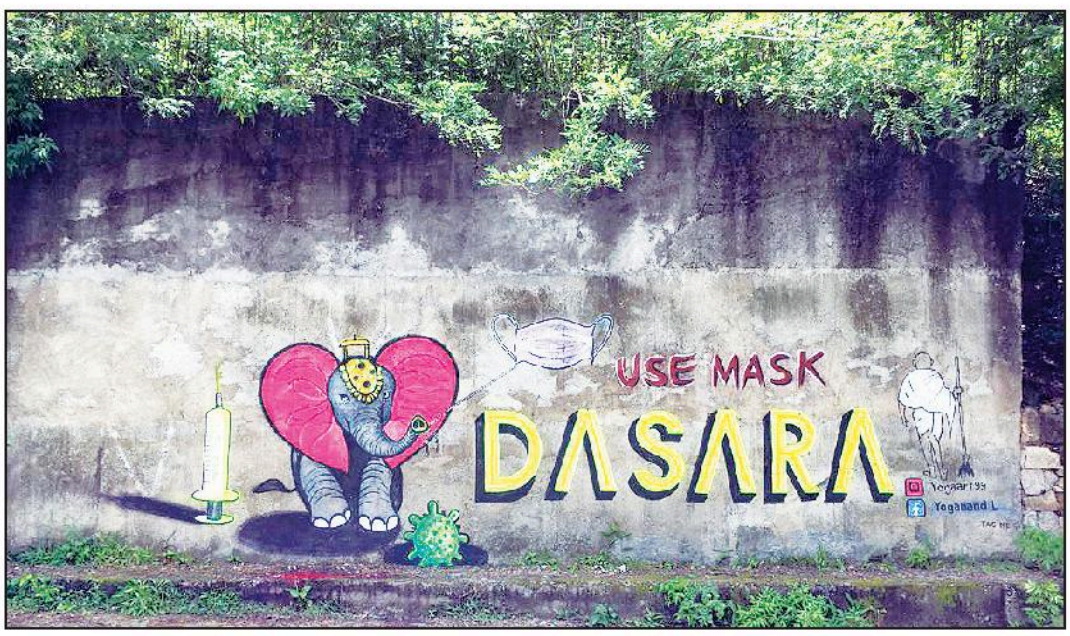
City artist renews painting to rekindle awareness



Come October, everyone looks forward for the annual grandeur — Naada Habba Dasara — but since the outbreak of Corona pandemic last year, the main attraction of the season, Jumboo Savari too is restricted to Palace premises. With that, the chance to witness the practice sessions of the royal guests of Mysuru, the Dasara jumbos, during early hours of the morning too is a thing of the past now. However, city-based artist L. Yogananda, an alumnus of CAVA, not forgetting these gentle giants, has used it as a medium to attract public attention towards the message he wants to convey by painting a wall atop Chamundi Hill. This painting, which was done last year in order to create awareness on importance of wearing mask even before vaccines were launched, was re-painted yesterday by slightly modifying the same and reminding people about getting vaccinated and follow COVID guidelines.

L. Yogananda, Artist

'Jumboo Savari' on Oct. 15

Mysuru, Oct. 2- The annual grandeur Jumboo Savari will be held on Oct. 15 between 5 pm and 5.30 pm. This year too, the Vijayadashami procession is limited to Palace premises in view of COVID pandemic.

Customary Nandi Dhwaja Puja will be held between 4.36 pm and 4.46 pm followed by offering flowers to the idol of the presiding deity placed inside the golden howdah.

The Dasara festivities will be inaugurated atop the Chamundi Hill on Oct. 7 between 8.15 am and 8.45 am. Like last year, the festivities will be a simple affair with a limited audience to be allowed to watch the inaugural event. Former CM S.M. Krishna will inaugurate the Naada Habba in the presence of CM Basavaraj Bommai and other dignitaries.

District Minister inspects Dasara inauguration site atop Chamundi Hill

Mysuru, Oct. 2- With less than a week to go for Dasara-2021 inauguration, District Minister S.T. Somashekar yesterday visited Chamundi Hill, where the 10-day Naada Habba will be inaugurated by former Chief Minister S.M. Krishna on Oct. 7.

The Minister reviewed the seating arrangements for dignitaries atop the Hill, public arena, Dasara inauguration telecast facilities and other preparations concerned with the inauguration.

Somashekar also discussed with the officials on the progress of preparations and about other facilities to be made at the spot.

Minister's Special Officer on Duty Dinesh Gooligowda, Hill Temple Executive Officer N.S. Yathiraj Sampathkumaran, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa and other officials were present.

Wildlife Photography Exhibition begins

Mysuru, Oct. 2-On account of Wildlife Week celebrations, Mysuru Zoo has organised a Photography Exhibition at Zoo Library. The award winning and selected photos from the Photography competition are displayed in the exhibition from Oct.2 to Oct. 8.

The Photography Exhibition, inaugurated by Mysuru SP R. Chethan this morning, will be kept open for visitors between 10 am and 5 pm. The selected photographs give a glimpse of wild animals in their natural habitat and Zoo setup.

L.R. Mahadevaswamy, Chairman, Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK), B.P. Ravi, APCCF, Member-Secretary, ZAK, Gokul Govardhan and Jyothi Rechanna, Members, Governing Council of ZAK, were present on the occasion, according to the Executive Director, Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens, Mysuru.

Ready to mediate for ending Viveka

Memorial row: MP Sreenivasa Prasad

Mysuru, Oct.2 (YDS&DM)-Even as some city-based organisations have continued to stage protests to save NTM School on N.S. Road, where a Viveka Memorial to be built by Sri Ramakrishna Ashram is proposed to come up, Chamarajanagar BJP MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad has offered to mediate in a bid to end the row once and for all.

Speaking after inaugurating the dining hall at Nrupatunga Kannada School premises at Ramakrishnanagar here on Thursday, Sreenivasa Prasad said that there should be no doubts on the decades old NTM School existence issue, as the school can be developed even at the place where it is shifted to.

Maintaining that the Government will provide the necessary infrastructure for the School's development, the MP argued that the construction of Swami Vivekananda Memorial Cultural Youth Centre will be of great help for lakhs of students in their extra curricular activities and learning.

Noting that he had raised the issue when he was the Revenue Minister in the Siddharamaiah-led Congress Government, he said that Siddharamaiah had then asked him to wait for Court verdict as the matter was already in the legal jurisprudence. Later on, the Court ruled in favour of Ramakrishna Ashram, he said and expressed disappointment over the ongoing protests.

Contending that it is not right on the part of organisations to hit the streets against the Court's ruling, the MP said that the protestors can knock on the doors of the Supreme Court if they were not satisfied with the HC ruling.

Recalling that Dr. Manmohan Singh as the Prime Minister of the earlier UPA Government at the Centre had decided to construct Viveka Memorials across the country, he said that accordingly, it was planned to construct one at Mysuru in the heart of the city.

Asserting that the issue right before us is to construct Vivekananda Cultural Youth Centre at NTM School site, Prasad reiterated that he was ready to mediate for arriving at a mutual understanding between the contesting parties to end the row amicably.

Referring to the practice of giving gifts during marriages, Prasad said that he had instructed all invited guests not to give any presents during his daughter's marriage. But still, some of his relatives and friends gave some gifts, he said adding that Rs. 50,000 collected as gifts was donated to mid-day meal scheme at Ashokapuram School.

The School authorities submitted a memorandum to him seeking grants for construction of four classrooms, to which the MP assured that he would release as much money as possible from his MP grants.

University of Mysore Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, Registrar Prof. R. Shivappa, Vidwan Dr. Manjunath, Nrupatunga Kannada School President P. Mallesh, office-bearers S.R. Sudarshan, H.G. Krishnappa, H.T. Shylaja and others were present.

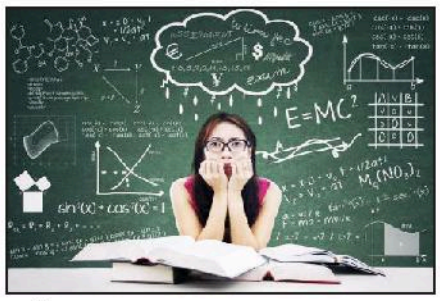
WORD OF THE DAY

Obtuse



Pronunciation: ahb-TOOSS.
Meaning: Difficult to understand or unable to understand what is obvious.
Origin: Obtuse comes from a Latin word meaning "dull" or "blunt." It can describe a geometric angle that is not acute or a person who is mentally "dull." In addition, obtuse can mean "hard to comprehend." That meaning is probably from confusion with the similar-sounding abstruse.
Example: "There are speeches and flags and somewhat obtuse artistic presentations, then at or near the end, the Olympic flame enters the stadium and is delivered to a cauldron ... to burn for the next 16 days." — Brandon Veale, The Duluth (Minnesota) News-Tribune, 23 July 2021.

THE ODD WORD

Oblate

Flattened at opposite sides or poles.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Over the moon

Meaning: Extremely pleased and happy.
Origin: Though the phrase is still popular today, particularly in British Football, the origin of the idiom 'over the moon' has its roots in the early 1700s. One of the first allusions to 'over the moon' in print can be seen in Charles Molloy's 1718 work 'The Coquet', or, 'The English Chevalier': "Tis he! I know him now: I shall jump over the Moon for Joy!"
Example: "When he sent me flowers and a note, I was over the moon."

QUOTE BOX

Don't tell me the moon is shining; show me the glint of light on broken glass. — Anton Chekhov
